

God's Blessing
by Samuel Lin

This poem was written and delivered by Samuel Lin, 5th Grader, during the farewell party of Minister Jing on November 24.

Words cannot describe,
Actions cannot describe,
Tears cannot explain,
What I want to express.

You have been a blessing,
A blessing to everyone,
Not even words can depict,
How blessed we are to have you.

God had used you.
He will continue so.
To spread the Word of God.
To those who haven't heard it.

The Lord is faithful,
He will not stop,
He will continue to guide,
Every step of the way.

For He's only a prayer away,
Ask and He will answer,
Knock and He will open,
Seek and you will receive.

Abundant feasts He gave,
Countless blessings we've reaped,
He will continue to provide,
With His unfailing love.

He will establish your every step,
He will lead you through the forest thick,
He will watch over you coming and going,
Both now and forevermore (Psalm 121:8).

We are indeed blessed by God,
Who supplied us heavenly feast,
Who filled our cup and it overflows,
Who is so merciful and graceful,

Arcadia Chinese Baptist Church

To those who fear Him.

You will bless everyone,
Children ministries will grow,
Everyone will indeed be blessed by you,
God will bless you too.

